50 CENTS PER MONTH

WANT WOMEN TO HAVE VOTE

Speakers Last Night Declared in Favor of Progressive Policies

GATES TALKS ON THREE BIG ISSUES

Right of Ballot to Be Given
This Fall Is Right That Has Long Been Denied

A good sized audience at Spurgeon's hall last night heard four speakers argue in favor of woman's suffrage, in favor of passing Amendment No. 8 at the amendments election on October 10. The arguments were convincing, and the presentation of the subject was able in every particular. While the meeting was aimed particularly to advance the interests of the cause of woman's suffrage, a large share of the remarks of the chairman of the evening, E. E. Keech of Santa Ana, and the principal speaker of the evening, State Senator Lee C. Gates of Los Angeles, were directed to advocacy of all the proposed amendments and to the principles and work of the Progressives of California led by Gov. Hiram W. Johnson. Mrs. Nanno Woods of Los Angeles, devoted her address entirely to a clear, forceful exposition of the cause of Equality.

The meeting was called to order by E. E. Keech, president of the Men's Equal Suffrage League of Orange County, under whose auspices the meeting was held.

"It is a pleasure to me to preside at this meeting," said the chairman. "A few years ago we were holding just such meetings as this, and we were defeated at polls. Our numbers are not so few now. In fact I am confident that a majority of the voters are now of our way of thinking."

"Things have been changing rapidly of late. The world has had a general awakening. The world has turned over, and everything that has its face to the front realizes that something is to be done in the way of the betterment of things."

The speaker reviewed the conditions in this state when the Southern Pacific had its grip on its politics. He showed how the progressives had taken hold of affairs, and had fought their way into the control of the state. A part of the plan of freeing the state from corporation control is the passing of the amendments.

Prof. Charles Farwell Edson of Los Angeles, was introduced and said that he as an artist, is fighting for recognition for art in America, just as women are fighting for votes.

"The reason America has no art and music is that it won't accept it," he said that Harry Balfour of Los Angeles, went to London, was discovered as an Italian and comes back to America under an Italian name and with a big salary.

He said "Some Times" is the greatest little song in any language. This song and "Nowadays" were sung by Prof. Edson in a telling manner.

"I don't see how any man can love his mother and not want to give to her the same rights that he has," said Edson. "That is the reason I am a suffragist." These words he used to introduce the singing of Kipling's lines at the introduction of "The Light That Failed."

Prof. Edson told a number of stories aptly setting forth some of the fallacies of the arguments against woman's suffrage.

Women Capable

In introducing Mrs. Nanno Woods, the chairman said that Stanford University had turned over to the coeds of the university the government of themselves, but could not turn over to the men the government of themselves. Mrs. Woods opened her address by the remark that she has three children at home.

"And my husband is not at home taking care of them while I am making a speech," she said. "My husband is here in the hall tonight."

Saying that she was born and bred in Ireland, Mrs. Woods described with delightful Irish accent the scene at the Irish village fair wherein a man drags his coat and dares any man to "tread on the tail of me coat," a dare to fight.

"At present in this state women seem to be treading on the tails of some men's coats," she said laughingly.

"For these many years, men seem to have been clothed in superiority," she said. "The substance of the reason women have not been able to vote is that they are not physically able to club the men into submission. Some people really put women's suffrage

Three Stolen Bills

LOCATED IN VANCOUVER
VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 16.—That some of the money stolen from the Bank of Montreal in circulation here was shown today. Bank and city detectives are working together in the matter. Local plainclothes men located three bills that, according to the warning from the bank, are in the list of stolen bills.

Warrant Out

FOR BROOKLYN BANKER
NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Justice Putnam of the supreme court, signed a warrant today for the arrest of Edward Grout, former comptroller of New York and president of the Union Bank of Brooklyn. Grout is involved in the alleged misappropriation of funds of the bank of which he is the head.

Army Officer

INJURED IN A FALL
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—Col. William Gray, in charge of the medical supply department of the United States Army here, suffered serious injuries this afternoon at Golden Gate Park when he was thrown from his horse as the latter stumbled.

GOVERNORS DO NOT LOOK FOR CONVICTION IN SHAKER CASE

SPRING LAKE, Sept. 16.—The case of Sister Sears and Brother Gillette, members of the Shaker colony at Kismet, Fla., accused of the murder of Sister Sadie, merchant whom they chloroformed to end her sufferings from tuberculosis is attracting the attention of the governors here in session at the house of governors. While not exactly approving such an act, not a governor here would see the accused persons hanged. Governor Gilchrist of Florida in whose state the affair happened does not believe the Shakers will be indicted.

"From the fact that Shakers are held on such small bail, when persons accused of murder in the first degree are not bailable, I am sure the circumstances are so well known that these poor people will not be convicted. They certainly will not be convicted of murder and I even doubt whether they will be indicted. I am certain that I will not be called upon to be the final judge but if I should be, I cannot conceive such people hanged."

Governor Hadley of Missouri said: "It is against the laws of God and man to take human life. If we once open the doors to such practices there is no telling where it might lead. Half the murder cases might be defended on the ground that the crimes were committed to end suffering."

Governor Hay of Washington said: "It is up to the doctors to decide such questions, but I understand that many of them are putting patients out of suffering when the case is agonizing and hopeless. Maybe they could be held for it legally, but juries would hardly convict."

Governor Carey of Wyoming said: "I would not permit it in the case of a relative or friend if I could help it, but it sometimes seems almost necessary. If such a case came before me for pardon I would judge the merits. It is impossible to make a general rule. In the case of the Shakers I doubt whether they can ever be convicted."

Governor Tener of Pennsylvania and Governor Plaisted of Maine indicated that they would pardon the accused if they were in their states.

Governor McGovern of Wisconsin said he would use "horse sense" in dealing with such a case.

PAYMASTER KILLED

ROBBERS ESCAPED

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 16.—Davis Stein, paymaster of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, was shot and killed and his companion injured when masked bandits attacked the men near Woodville at noon today. The robbers grabbed Stein's money bag and disappeared. The amount stolen is not known.

Claims He Was Not Allowed to Use Material on Hand—
Fling at Governor

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 16.—State Printer W. W. Shannon has addressed a communication to the State Board of Control in which he accuses the board of hampering him in his work. He blames them for the fact that school children throughout the state cannot obtain books.

Shannon says the board unlawfully prohibited him from using material in his office with the result that books cannot be issued and school children will be compelled to go without books for a month.

Shannon also blames the board of control for not being able to get out the statutes of the last session of the Legislature. In closing the letter he takes a fling at Governor Johnson.

PETITIONS MAY MEAN SUITS

Actions for Damages to Follow as Result of Loss of Life in Times Disaster

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 16.—With the filing today of three petitions in behalf of two widows and one father, whose relatives perished in the destruction of the Times building there comes to light the fact that several suits will be brought against General Harrison Gray Otis and Harry Chandler, managing editor, asking damages for the loss of the lives of employees who perished in the flames.

The petitions ask that Mrs. Hattie Wasson, widow of Walter Edward Wasson, and Mary Crane, widow of Harry L. Crane, be appointed administrators of the estates of the deceased husbands, and that Joseph Courdway be appointed administrator of the estate of his son, Howard Courdway. It is set out that damage suits may be brought against the Times and officers of the corporation.

FIEND CAUGHT AND CONFESSES

Man Who Attacked Schoolteachers Gives Himself Up at Hannah, N. D.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 16.—The desperado who brutally kidnapped Miss Gladys Price, a school teacher, was captured this morning at Hannah, N. D., and confessed.

Wilson surrendered without a fight. He appeared at the home of a farmer near Haliday and asked for food. He was unarmed. The farmer supplied the food and telephoned to Hannah that he had Wilson in custody. Wilson ate ravenously and was apparently almost starved after his long sojourn in the bush after he left Miss Price.

When the posse appeared Wilson fled and tried to hide in a haystack, but surrendered when he saw he was surrounded.

Within an hour news of Wilson's capture spread and mobs of armed men, boys and women started for Hannah from Snowflake, Manitoba, and other places determined to lynch him.

Wilson was dressed exactly as the girl declared he was.

VICTIM DANCED WHEN HOLD-UP MAN SHOT

Man Near Benedict Robbed of
$1.50 By Highwayman
Last Night

BICYCLE RIDDEN BY HIGHWAYMAN

Deputy Sheriff Follows Tracks
But Gets No Clue of Importance

Lee St. John, employed in the auditor's office of the Pacific Electric in Los Angeles, was held up at the point of a revolver about 1 o'clock this morning on the road near his home at Gardena, a P. E. station between Gardena and Benedict. The hold-up man got $1.50.

St. John lives a quarter of a mile south of the crossing. He left Los Angeles last night on the 12:10 car, and got off at Gardena. As he walked along he felt a little uneasy, and he turned a big ring on his finger so that the top was next his palm. Just then a short man who talked hurriedly and in broken English jumped out from beside the road, which is lined with eucalyptus with a revolver in his hand.

"Got any money?" he demanded.

"Yes, I've got a little," said St. John.

"Throw it down here then," said the man, pointing to the ground.

St. John threw down a dollar and a half.

"That all you got?"

"Yes," St. John did not consider it necessary to confess to a little gold he had in his hip pocket.

"Sure? Got a watch?"

"Yes, I've got a watch, worth about a dollar. I'll give it to you if you want it."

"Keep it. Now I know who you are, and don't you go making a fuss about this. Go on home and keep your mouth shut."

With that the hold-up man fired a shot into the ground close to St. John's feet, close enough to make most any man dance. St. John undoubtedly danced. St. John was then allowed to go his way without being searched, and from the tracks as examined early this morning by Deputy Sheriff Jernigan the man walked to a clump of eucalyptus trees where a bicycle was mounted and ridden away. The deputy got no clue of importance.

The place where the hold-up occurred was quite dark, and St. John could see but little of the intruder, not enough to give even a fair description of him.

The circumstances are somewhat similar to those of the hold-up of Bowen, the poultryman, at Bzaro a few months ago. A Mexican on a bicycle rode up to Bowen as Bowen was walking home after alighting from a late car. Bowen was relieved of his spare cash, and the Mexican rode away on his bicycle.

ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH STATEMENT

PARIS, Sept. 16.—Widespread dissatisfaction exists here today as a result of the reported concessions from France to Germany in the Congo as a result of the Moroccan trouble. A political crisis is predicted. The anti-government forces charge that France has given Germany the key to the Congo. The government press is back with replies that Morocco is ten times more valuable to France than is the Congo.

ENGLAND STRENGTHENS MAGAZINE GUARDS

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The guards at war magazines throughout England are being strengthened and the most stringent regulations enforced to prevent possible surprise. The war department the other day received a severe shock when shown the utter lack of protection at the Upnor magazine in Chatham. An officer made a bet with a fellow officer that he could with the assistance of one man, enter the place at night and remain long enough to blow it up without detection. He disguised himself as a civilian, approached the lone sentry and engaged him in conversation while his companion slipped up from behind and overpowered the soldier. Between the two they bound and gagged the sentry and laid him in a nearby embrasure. They then leisurely wandered through the magazine and returned later to liberate the unfortunate soldier and incidentally collect the bet.

MAY HAVE HIM

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Sept. 16.—The report is current this afternoon that one of the Bank of Montreal robbers was captured at Port Haney, about 12 miles up the Fraser river from this city.

BOY CRUSHED AGAINST POST BY TEAM WAS UNCONSCIOUS UNTIL 1:30 THIS MORNING

Harry Jesse, son of A. L. Jesse of Newhope, is in a precarious condition as the result of being crushed against a post by a team of horses on the Wakeham ranch at Old Newport.

The boy was employed hauling fodder. Yesterday morning H. L. Wakeham found that the team was without a driver, and on searching he found the boy unconscious. This was at 11 o'clock. It was 1:30 o'clock this morning before the lad regained his senses. He states that when he reached the gate he got down off the wagon, opened the gate and was leading the horses through it when in some way he was caught between the horses and the gate-post. That is all he remembers. It is feared that the boy has very serious internal injuries. The injury to his head seems to have proven not as serious at first feared.

This accident was productive of a fast run to the neighborhood by Deputy Sheriff Jernigan. A woman near Talbert telephoned in that she saw a negro running across her field, and that the description fitted the negro who murdered the woman at Compton. Joseph Parsons of Talbert got out in his automobile in search of the negro. The officers followed the trail toward the Wakeham ranch, and it was then learned that the man who was seen running was A. L. Jesse, father of the injured boy. Jesse was at work in a blacksmith shop when he was told that his boy was hurt. Without stopping to wash his face he started cross-lots to where his boy was.

PROGRESSIVE ADMINISTRATION ALREADY ACCOMPLISHED MUCH

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 16.—(Special to the Register)—Since the adjournment of the Legislature full five months have passed and in that time there has been no cessation on the part of Governor Johnson either in activity in behalf of, or in the accomplishment of "constructive reforms." The record of those five months is one that can be matched by no similar period in the State's history. The Chief Executive has promulgated the rare doctrine in state government that the honest and energetic administration of laws beneficial to the people of the state is a duty no less important than their adoption, and has devoted that personal force which was the marvel of the electoral campaign and the strenuous legislative session to putting to effective use the weapons placed in his hands by the people and the Legislature. A brief review of the result forms a page in California's history of which the loyal people of the state well may be proud.

First he placed on guard men who were no less interested than himself in the state's welfare and in conserving the rights of the whole people—men who were familiar with existing evils, whose honesty had been tried, whose successful administration of their own affairs, whose command of the respect and loyalty of all the people, and whose best interest counted far more than personal advantage or gain.

Period of Action

The right men having been found there was inaugurated a period of action. The printing house supply ring that so long has dominated was broken up and an investigation started that means text books for every California child at actual cost of publication under economical conditions.

The San Francisco Harbor administration, under which the Southern Pacific named its own rental charges at the expense of the shipping interests, was overturned and the railroads forced to bear a fair proportion of the expense, with a corresponding reduction on docking rates.

The purchasing of supplies for state hospitals and other institutions was put under adequate supervision, with the result that contracts are let to the lowest bidder and economical administration insisted upon.

For the first time in years honest business houses were given an equal chance in state contracts in all branches of the state government, and fair prices and honest quality have resulted.

The Wells Fargo Express Company

These are but a few of the many accomplishments of the five months that have passed since the close of the legislative session, and the good work scarcely has begun. It is a good record and it means much to the sober-minded and industrious citizen who so long has chafed under the old order, and who now is beginning to realize the advantage of equal opportunity for rich and poor alike; of unfailing justice for the fortunate and unfortunate as well.

And it means much to the people of the state when they are asked by the man whose leadership and tireless energy have brought about so much in their behalf, so to change the fundamental law of the state that the benefits they have gained may be perpetuated, that they may retain in their own hands the control of the state's welfare, and that return to domination by special interests forever may be impossible.

DOG GIVES LIFE TO SAVE MASTER FROM JAIL

PASADENA, Sept. 16.—A mongrel dog gave his own life yesterday in an effort to keep his master out of the clutches of the law. The dog was known as "Sanchez," its master as Antonio Villeros. Villeros made such a noise that complaint was made to the police. Patrolman Griffin was sent to the house and when he placed his hand on the shoulder of the dog's master to lead him away, the animal made a lunge at the policeman to stop him. Griffin drew his revolver and shot the dog, he claims in self-protection. Wounded, the dog made a second rush and was met with a second bullet. Still alive, he made a third dash when the bullet proved fatal.

POLITICS IS PASSED BY TAFT

First Speech of Western Trip
Given to Learned Disquisition on Agriculture

COMMENDS WORK OF
FEDERAL DEPARTMENT

President Says Many Speeches on Tour Will Be Devoted to Issues of Day

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 16.—President Taft arrived here at 7:30 this morning for the first stop of his western tour. He is spending the greater part of the day at the New York state fair.

Disappointing a large crowd that expected him to make a political speech today, President Taft, on his first stop of the Western tour, delivered a learned and didactic essay on agriculture. He said in part:

"We are spending fifteen millions yearly for maintenance of a department of agriculture. We might as well face the truth, and realize that this expense is bound to increase instead of decrease. I have given much attention to the matter of economy and efficiency in the administration of the government."

"While I cannot say at present that the department might not do the same work with less money by a closer knit organization and greater care in expenditures, I am confident that increased yearly appropriations may be expected."

"The chief function of the department is advisory and educational, and includes scientific investigation. With reference to the improvement of agricultural education, to active, effective cooperation by state authorities with the federal authorities, there is nothing left to be desired. It is proposed that every county in every state shall have trained agriculturists to be paid partly by the government, partly by the state and partly by the county. It is thought by actual experiment in connection with high schools and agricultural colleges that such a stimulus will be given the present generation of farmers that the effect on the coming generation will be doubled."

Will Discuss Live Issues

At a breakfast given Taft by the chamber of commerce, the President outlined his trip through the West by saying:

"On this trip I shall discuss issues of the day, including some of those which have become known as my policies. I shall endeavor to make clear my views on some questions which are perplexing legislators and executives at Washington."

In discussing relations between the state, the individual, and the nation he said: "I am opposed to that doctrine of Socialism which would take power from the individual and give it to the state."

Start of the Tour

BOSTON, Sept. 16.—President Taft left Boston at 7:35 last night on his long speaking tour of 13,000 miles, which is to embrace twenty-four states and is to continue until November 1. His departure in the special train prepared for his party was signalled by an enthusiastic demonstration from several thousand persons to bid him Godspeed.

When the special train left over the Boston and Albany Railroad the President's immediate party consisted of Secretary Charles D. Hilles, Maj. A. W. Butt, military aide, and Maj. Thomas L. Rhodes, United States Army, the President's physician, and three secret service guards. Nine newspaper reporters accompanied the party. The Pullman private car ideal was occupied by the President and his immediate party. The coach is to be carried over the entire journey.

JUDGE UPHOLDS RATE REDUCTION

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 16.—Federal Judge Smith McPherson today dissolved the injunction restraining the state railroad commission from reducing express rates throughout Iowa. As a result, lower rates are effective October 31. The reductions average from 10 to 15 per cent under existing regulations. In their pleas the companies cited the Minnesota decision of Judge Sanborn, but the court held that the state had a right to make the rates.

WAS KILLED BY COYOTES

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 16.—A few scattered human bones and remnants of clothing found on the Refugio grade today, near Santa Ynez, bear mute evidence of a tragedy in the wilds of the Santa Ynez mountains. Investigation revealed that the man was attacked and killed by coyotes while asleep or ill.

SAN BERNARDINO LOSES

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 16.—Jeff McElvaine, member of the State Board of Equalization, who is home on a visit, says San Bernardino County will lose $180,000 because of the operation of Amendment No. 1, which takes the railroad mileage tax out of the vaults of the county. The state will reimburse the county for this loss with only $53,000.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Wearing about a pint of pearls, and the filmist gown imaginable, Gaby Deslys, the Paris actress who cost King Manuel of Portugal his throne, arrived here today on the liner La Lorraine. She posed freely for photographers but refused to discuss Manuel. She is apparently 23, and undeniably beautiful.

Elsie Harrison will resume her class in piano instruction September 18. Studio 816 Bush street. Both phones.

THE REGISTER'S RECORD OF CITY'S DEVELOPMENT

STEADY GROWTH SHOWN BY PERMITS

Activity Continues in All Lines of Building, and Month Will Be Good One

RESIDENCES ARE OF SUBSTANTIAL CLASS

Almost an Average of One New One a Day; Demand Strong for More

There is no diminution in the building activity in Santa Ana, as evidenced by the building permits, and while this month will not approach the record-breaking figures as regards expenditures reached by August, the month as a whole will show a most satisfactory activity. In all lines there is shown a healthy condition, and contractors, carpenters and allied trades are having all they can do. The August permits were boosted by two exceptionally large buildings, which put the expenditures above all previous records, but so far as the number of permits goes September promises to run the preceding month a close race.

The permits continue to show an average of close to one substantial residence per day, indicating the steady and healthy growth of the city, for, in spite of all this building, there is a lively demand at all times for houses. This month will see the commencement of several very fine residences, besides more than one business house and large buildings of other character.

The permits for the month to date number 28 and call for the expenditure of $27,164. Following is the record to date:

O. S. Witt, owner, M. Rusk, builder; frame addition to barn, 1910 North Main; $45.
F. S. Stambaugh, owner and builder; frame addition to residence, 724 East Pine; $75.
Scheel Bros., owners and builders; 1½ story frame barn, 1900 Spurgeon; $200.
C. A. Robinson & Son, owners and builders; 5-room cottage, 1322 Spurgeon; $1900.
D. P. McBurney, owner and builder;

er; one-story frame warehouse, 803 East Third; $50.
First Evangelical Lutheran church, owner, E. W. Smith, builder; one-story frame church, 803 Brown; $1544.

Henry Siefert & Son, owners and builders; 5-room frame cottage, 1060 West Second; $1500.

F. E. Harper, owner, F. F. Skelly, builder; one-story frame dwelling, 948 West Pine; $1400.

Miss L. Palmer, owner, A. C. Black, builder; concrete and frame porch, 302 South Broadway; $500.

Orange County Dried Fruit Association, owner and builder; one-story frame addition to packing house, Santa Fe tracks; $400.

CLIMATE IS CONSIDERED

Increasing Tendency Shown to Build Houses Meeting Local Conditions

A gratifying feature of the building situation in this section is the growing tendency to consider the demands of climate and scenery in the erection of residences. In this respect every part of the country necessarily has its own peculiarities in this respect, and an intelligent consideration of them is necessary to secure the best results in building.

"One of the greatest difficulties I have had to contend with in the planning of houses," said a leading contracting builder the other day, "is the fact that so many people who come here from other states insist on having their houses built according to the style which prevailed in the old home. For instance, the man who has come here from a very cold climate cannot be made to understand that it is not

Capistrano's Handsome New School Is Turned Over to the Trustees

NEW SCHOOL AT CAPISTRANO

The new district school building at San Juan Capistrano, just completed at a cost of $8000, was turned over to the trustees by the contractors Thursday last.

The building is in mission style, the walls being of plaster on metal lath, and the roof of metal tile. The building proper is 100 feet front by 66 feet deep, and contains four class rooms, library and principal's room. The two rear class rooms are connected by accordion folding doors, so that they may be thrown together to form an auditorium when necessary. The building has a furnace heating system and is throughout modernly equipped in every respect. In size the school is ample for the needs of the district for years to come, and its artistic lines necessary to build for warmth in this country, but insists on having his house built like an airtight vault, with every room sealed and built so that it can be shut off from every other. Of course, such a plan of construction cuts off to a great extent two of the great desiderata in this country—light and air.

"Again, the man who comes from an eastern city insists on having the exterior of his house finished in fancy style, and probably painted in a variegated color scheme. Now this climate is exceptionally hard on paint exposed to the elements, and the result is that a house on which a lot of money has been spent begins to look shabby a year or so after it is finished. Either the owner has to keep painting at frequent intervals or his property deteriorates, and he does not get the worth of the money he expended with a view to securing a handsome home. Moreover tourists and homeseekers, not being acquainted with local conditions, are frequently unfavorably impressed by homes on which, as a matter of fact, enough money has been spent to secure artistically handsome buildings.

"It seems to me that the topography and climate of Southern California demand a rugged, back-to-nature style in exteriors. I find that a stained exterior gives fully twice the service of a painted color, and it seems to me that the effect is more satisfactory from the first. My advice to builders is to use the rough effects on the outside and finish the interior as elaborately as may be desired. In this way the desired effects may be obtained and the results be more satisfactory in the end. And I see an increasing tendency to adopt this policy."

will add another distinct ornament to picturesque Capistrano.

PLACENTIA SCHOOL WILL BE A BEAUTY

Architect Frederick H. Ely has just completed plans for the Placentia district school, for which bonds to the amount of $36,000 were recently voted. The plans as framed provide for a splendidly equipped building, which undoubtedly will be the handsomest district school in the county.

The building is to be of solid brick, finished in Mission style, and with mission tile roof. The furnace room in the basement will be of reinforced concrete, making it absolutely fireproof. It is to contain eight class rooms, teachers' room, principal's room and library, while the center of the building will be devoted to a large auditorium with stage. This will be built two stories high, to provide for a gallery, the rest of the building being one story. The auditorium will be so arranged that the corridors on three sides of it can be thrown in connection with it for seating room. Closed the auditorium will seat 550 people and with the corridors utilized will provide for 750 seats.

The plans call for an expenditure of about $33,000 on the building proper, it being planned to use several thousand dollars for artistic out-buildings to be used for lavatories and toilets.

BUILDINGS IN PROGRESS AND MANY OTHERS PLANNED KEEP CONTRACTORS BUSY

Work was started this week on the renovation and enlargement of the Church of the Messiah, at Seventh and Bush streets. The floor of the building is to be raised five feet, and under this a basement five feet deep will be dug, the space to be used for the construction of a Gullie. An addition is also to be built on the church proper, in the form of a ladies' parlor, to be connected with the main auditorium by folding doors, so that all may be thrown together when necessary. The task of raising the entire building and putting in a new story underneath it is a delicate one, and it is expected that three months will be required to complete the job. The estimated cost of the improvements is $1800. J. W. Blew, who has the contract for the work, built the church twenty-four years ago.

Work was started this week on a one-story brick veneer building for the West End Development Company at 409 North Birch street. The building is to contain two store rooms, with a warehouse in the rear which is to be attached to the store of Mitchell & Browne, the wall paper men, on Fourth street. The new work is an addition to the Development Company's block of buildings facing Fourth street, and will be finished in uniform style with it. The cost is to be $1800, and A. C. Black has the contract.

Contractor R. C. McMILLAN this week turned over to the owner the handsome new bungalow built for A. H. Pease, on Main street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth. The building is finished with rugged exterior, while inside the finish is elaborate and artistic. The cost was $4000.

Contractor S. B. Stambaugh has just completed for E. R. Maury in Tustin a pretty residence, with barn, windmill tower and tank, making altogether a well equipped country place. Mr. Maury is a retired shoe merchant from San Francisco, who came to Southern California to take life easy and devote his time to fruit raising. He purchased a part of the Rice ranch, and will devote it to oranges, apricots and other fruits. The tank and house are built in oriental style, with a genuine pagoda roof, and form a picturesque feature of the ranch.

Contractor Thomas Ash has just finished for Ed Ward a pretty six-room residence at Third and Shelton streets. One of the features of the house is a combined living and dining room, extending the whole length of the house, the two parts being separated by a partition.

BIG FORCE WORKING ON NEW RESERVOIR

A large force of men and teams under City Engineer Balderston are at work on the new city reservoir, at Sixth and Olive streets, and the excavating is considerably more than half completed. The reservoir is to be 260x240 feet in dimensions, and 14 feet deep, and will contain about 8,500,000 gallons of water. On the north side a retaining wall of reinforced concrete has been built, 260 feet long and 20 feet deep. On the other three sides the walls will be of earth, specially treated with a coating of oil to prevent seepage. On top of these will be laid concrete walls for the support of the roof girders, which will be of reinforced concrete and will in turn support the trussed roof. It is expected that the work will be completed about December 1. The renovation and enlargement of the Church of the Messiah, at Seventh and Bush streets. The floor of the building is to be raised five feet, and under this a basement five feet deep will be dug, the space to be used for the construction of a Gullie. An addition is also to be built on the church proper, in the form of a ladies' parlor, to be connected with the main auditorium by folding doors, so that all may be thrown together when necessary. The task of raising the entire building and putting in a new story underneath it is a delicate one, and it is expected that three months will be required to complete the job. The estimated cost of the improvements is $1800. J. W. Blew, who has the contract for the work, built the church twenty-four years ago.

Cement work has been completed on the foundations of the new United Presbyterian church, at Sixth and Bush streets, and carpenters will start work next week. F. S. Willis of Ontario has the contract for the wood-work, and the finishing will be done under direction of the builders. The edifice is to cost $26,000 and will be one of the handsomest in the city.

Work was started this week by Contractor R. C. McMILLAN on a $4750 bungalow for Herbert Rankin at 2043 North Main street. It is to be of shake exterior and contain seven rooms.

Architect Ely has drawn plans for a five-room bungalow to be erected for H. C. Humphrey at Tenth and Bush streets. It will be finished in rough exterior and will cost $1500.

Contractor N. L. Galbraith has started work on a ten-room frame bungalow for W. N. Carter on South Main street. It is to cost $2500.

Architect F. W. Opp has prepared plans and specifications for a seven room, one and a half story bungalow which is now under construction for H. P. Opp on East Twentieth street.

The handsome $5000 residence of W. B. Tedford, on Broadway, north of Washington avenue, is nearing completion. Plasterers are now at work on the interior. The building is two stories, the lower half being finished on the outside in mission style, with a second story in chateau effect. The interior will be handsomely finished.

Contractor Black has the outside work completed on the twenty-room apartment house being erected for Mrs. Carrie S. Bent on Ross street, near Tenth. The building is to be divided into five apartments of five rooms each. It will cost $6500.

Contractor Galbraith this week finished the exterior work on a ten-room two-apartment house for J. T. Kinslow at Third and Spurgeon streets. The building is in California bungalow style, and will cost about $2700 finished.

F. W. Opp has prepared plans for a 1½ story, 8-room bungalow to be built at Alta Vista, above Glendale.

new reservoir will have more than four times the capacity of the old one, and will supply the city's needs for some years to come.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

HARVEST FESTIVAL AT BUENA PARK A GREAT SUCCESS

BUENA PARK, Sept. 16.—The second day of the harvest festival has been an overwhelming success in every detail. The products grown here without irrigation are on exhibition and are attracting the attention of all.

The ladies here have planned the affair, thinking that the farmers will hereafter take a greater interest in their crops if such fine specimens may be grown in this vicinity without special care. The Ladies' Mutual Aid has been organized twenty years, and with willing hands have gladdened many hearts with their financial aid.

AMUSEMENTS

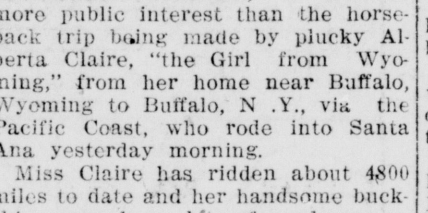

Few feats of daring have been creative of more comment, or aroused more public interest than the horse-back trip being made by plucky Alberta Claire, "the Girl from Wyoming," from her home near Buffalo, Wyoming to Buffalo, N. Y., via the Pacific Coast, who rode into Santa Ana yesterday morning.

Miss Claire has ridden about 4800 miles to date and her handsome buckskin pony shows lots of good care as he is standing the trip in good shape. Mickie, the dog, however, is rather cross as the oiled roads keeps his feet sore and he arrived yesterday in an auto.

Mickie, a large intelligent dog part wolf and New Foundland, who prides himself on being the only escort and protector of "the girl from Wyoming," is never to be found far from his mistress' side except when on guard at the stable where he and the pony are quartered.

Miss Claire stands just four feet ten inches tall and weighs ninety four pounds.

Miss Claire will be at the Temple again tonight and Sunday night.

INDIGESTION WILL VANISH

Makes Your Out-of-Order Stomach Feel Fine in Five Minutes

Take your out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your pharmacist and ask him to open a 5-cent case of Peppin's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the digestive organs become weak; there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

Beautiful Balboa Beach

There is no more charming spot on the Pacific Coast than Balboa Beach. For a summer home or a place for temporary sojourn or a day's recreation it is unsurpassed. Indeed it is in a class by itself. With a grand stretch of beach on one side for surf-bathing and surf-fishing, and on the other the beautiful Newport Bay for still-water fishing, bathing, boating, it is incomparable. On the Ocean side the pleasure pier is now being extended 200 feet further out into the deep blue sea, and on the Bay side is Balboa Pavilion and bath-house with every facility for pleasurable recreation—dancing, boating, fishing, bathing, canoeing. There are the Venetian Gondola, the steam launches and row-boats and canoes. Directly in front of the Pavilion is Balboa Island on which some of the finest summer homes in Southern California are being built, and to the right across the Bay is Corona del Mar crowned with fine hotel and beautiful cottages, bungalows and more pretentious residences. This resort is free from all objectionable features; is clean and wholesome both morally and physically; and is supplied with all the requirements of visitors, sojourners and residents, as the following list of leading caterers and tradesmen in their respective lines will testify:

ANNOYING QUESTION

Amid all the arguments in favor of and against the application of the recall to corrupt judges as well as other officials, one question asked by Governor Hiram W. Johnson stands out with a pointedness most embarrassing to the opponents of popular government. That question is:

"Why is every reactionary and every follower of the old Southern Pacific political machine opposed to the application of the recall to the judiciary?"

"With a persistence annoying to the opposition Governor Johnson in private and public discussions has asked this question, and the opponents of the recall simply have squirmed."

"Many good citizens are opposed to the recall as applied to the judiciary," said the Governor recently, "but do you know of any bad citizens who are in favor of it?"

Discussing with a number of citizens who called upon him recently, the question of the recall, Governor Johnson said:

"You have the ability and intelligence to select judges in the first instance, and the ability and intelligence to determine upon their records whether they deserve re-election at the end of six years, but you have not the ability or intelligence, according to our opponents, to determine their competency and fitness at the end of two or four years."

LOCAL PATRIOTISM

It is singular how so many people will yell themselves hoarse rooting for the home ball team, who would not give a dollar to establish a new industry here, nor would they both to suggest to friends contemplating a removal that this would be a good town to live in.

The intense partisanship manifested in any athletic sports in behalf of the home players indicates a large sentiment of home loyalty. It is an unselfish sentiment, excellent so far as it goes. The men on the bleachers do not get a nickel addition to their wages because home boys win.

Of course in some cases the cheering men may have money on the game. Yet our observation is that the better is too worried to cheer. It is the man who wants the home team to win from simple home loyalty that makes the noise.

Why is it that this most commendable sentiment is so abounding under such circumstances, and so lacking when there is still more vital need for its expression?

The cities that have grown populous, powerful, wealthy, that have become great centers of industrial life and cherished locations for residence, have become so because some small group of men loved the soil of those localities, longed to have them true to high ideals, had faith in their future, had the self sacrifice to keep pulling all the time for business and civic advance. And they had no time or breath to spend in mere criticism.

The mainspring of this action is a home patriotism differing only from that of the crowd at the ball game in having a bigger field for its expression.

We may not all of us do big things for this city. Not all of us can be presidents of boards of trade or land new industries. But if everyone of us took every possible occasion to say that this is a mighty good place to live and do business in, a wide spreading circle of home patriotism would be let loose the final reach of which would be incalculable.

HILL GIVES A TIP

James J. Hill, the genius of the northern railroads, wasn't arguing "back to the land" but was talking reciprocity, when he gave out these striking figures:

"There are 3,000,000 less hogs in the United States than there were 10 years ago and 9,000,000 less cattle. Our exports of grain steadily are diminishing."

In a discussion before the Present Day Club, several months ago, the editor of the Register presented an argument substantially the same as this in explaining the high cost of living. And now comes the San Bernardino Sun with this comment on Mr. Hill's statement of a tremendous fact:

"Forty volumes would not go further to suggest one reason for the high cost of living than Mr. Hill here puts into less than as many words. But under it all is the fact that with millions more people we are producing less food for them. And there never was a time when farming paid so well as now."

SENATOR WORKS ON THE RECALL

In a speech at Los Angeles the other day, Senator Works reiterated that he believes in the recall as applied to all offices except the judges, but reiterated that he is constitutionally opposed on principle to the recall of the judiciary. Despite this belief he announced that he will vote for the recall amendment to the constitution because, he explained, the legislature bound up the recall of the judiciary along with the recall of other offices and for the sake of the greater principle involved it is his intention to waive his objections.

Senator Works was applauded for this announcement and invited to state his reasons for opposing the recall of judges, but declined to begin an argument when the hour was so late.

WHAT OTHER ORANGE COUNTY PAPERS ARE SAYING EDITORIALY

ONE MINUTE SERMONS IN FULLERTON NEWS

BY THE OLD MAN
One has to get along with all sorts of people in this world, and the easiest way is the best. In the course of a day there are many varieties—those one prefers to meet and those who waste another's time and tire one out. Perhaps the most annoying class of people are those who are scared to death much of the time that something is going to happen, and whose entire future consists of all kinds of bridges in tortuous roads, bridges that are seldom reached actually. A timid, fretful man is bad enough, but when a woman gets fearful, and lets it prey upon her mind, there is trouble enough. Some women are always seeing bugaboos. They are always on the verge of trouble—always seeing things or expecting the disagreeable. One can bear with women in the early stages of worry, but sometimes as the years roll on, and the poor woman actually believes things will happen that never come to pass—she is indeed to be pitied. It is so much in the condition of the mind. The Old Man, in his inspection of institutions, has seen a man who really imagined he was the king of England. He has seen a woman in the mildly insane ward who actually believed she was the queen of England. Now, in a way, perhaps these people were happy in their minds, yet they were in the eyes of "sane" people, twisted. Yet, they ate regularly, slept well, and in their waking moments simply conceived that they were royal personages. Perhaps the nurses humored them, but the patients saw in it what they thought was the proper obeisance. The Old Man quotes the experiences of the insane just to show what the human mind is capable of believing and applies the illustration to the ones on the outside, who are supposed to be sane. It is just as easy to get into the fixed thought of trouble coming, when it never does, as it is to turn one's hand over. There is not half so much trouble in the world as one thinks. Perhaps three-quarters of the alleged trouble is solely in the imagination.

IT IS EASIER TO SAVE THE HAIR

You Have Than to Grow New

The tendency to put off until tomorrow what we should do today accounts for most of the bald heads we see in the front row.

Newbro's Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. The dandruff germ is destroyed by its use and a condition of health maintained in the hair and scalp.

Nearly everyone has hair troubles of some description which Herpicide will always correct. Don't wait until it is too late.

It is conceded to be the standard hair remedy and is recommended and applied by all the best hair dressers and barbers.

Aid to Perfect Health

That the body may be in a perfectly healthy, normal condition, it is necessary that the various organs perform their natural functions in the regular manner.

This is particularly true of the liver, the principal work of which is the separation of various poisonous materials from the blood. Unless these are withdrawn and disposed of, they are reabsorbed into the system, resulting in a gradual poisoning of the whole system.

Reckall Liver Salts has proven remarkably efficacious in aiding the liver to properly perform its functions, and for this reason we most highly recommend the use of this preparation to you.

We have it in two sizes, 25c and 50c. Dean's Drug Store. The Reckall Drug Store.

Tustin W. C. T. U.

The Tustin W.C.T.U. met at the hospitable home of the president, Mrs. A. L. Shatto.

A goodly number of members and visitors were present. After the opening songs, the roll call and pledge reciting, Mrs. Shatto led the devotion in her usual thoughtful and helpful manner.

Reports were then listened to from the committees having the open air meeting in charge. These meetings always prove very satisfactory. A motion was made to tender a vote of thanks to all those who in any way helped to make the meeting a success.

The subject, "Medical Temperance," was then taken up, Mrs. C. E. Miller being leader for that department. Extracts were read from letters of prominent physicians and surgeons, and it was learned that one of the most important factors in the treatment of disease is plenty of fresh air. It is especially true in cases of typhoid fever. As papers were read by different members many startling facts were learned, as to the effect of alcohol on the human system.

Mrs. J. C. Stearns sang in her most charming manner two beautiful selections, accompanied by Mrs. Kate Ebel.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Miller, led by Mrs. R. Rawlings. Subject, "Christian Citizenship."

Tustin Embroidery Club

The Tustin Twelve Embroidery Club, which is to meet at the home of one of the members once each month for the purpose of doing fancy embroidery work, was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ellis Smith. ENDEAVORERS ENTERTAIN

The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of the United Presbyterian church entertained the intermediates of the church last night at the home of Mr. F. L. Andrews on East Fourth street. About sixty young people were present and a very pleasant evening was spent.

The program was in the form of a track meet and the captains elected were Stewart Smith and John Henderson, the former leader of the "Reds," the latter at the head of the "Blues." The various events were very novel. Five stalwarts from each side were entered in the foot race and when the judges measured the feet of the contestants the "Blues" were found to have the "big feet," but when it came to the broad jump, in which the broad smiles of the entrants were taken into consideration, the "Reds" were on top and their lead landed them as winners of the meet.

The yells, in charge of yell leaders "Bill" Smart and "Bob" McGee, added much to the enthusiasm of the evening. Delicious brick ice cream and cake closed the events of the successful meet.

HYOMEI FOR CATARRH

World's Greatest Remedy Free From Cocaine, Opium and All Habit Forming Drugs

Start right now, before the cold weather comes, to kill catarrh germs and get rid of catarrh. It's the best time.

Breathe HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-mey). Rowley Drug Co. guarantees it. It is made of Australian eucalyptus, thymol and other antiseptics, and besides destroying the germs it soothes and heals the sore, raw membrane and prevents mucus from forming in the air passages.

Breathe it a few times a day. It's an easy and pleasant treatment and results are quick and certain.

HYOMEI is guaranteed for catarrh, asthma and catarrhal deafness, or money back. A complete outfit, including hard rubber inhaler, costs $1.00. Extra bottles if afterward needed cost but 50 cents.

MRS. HAMLIN IS EDITOR OF LOCAL PUBLICATION

Catherine Robertson Hamlin, formerly a newspaperwoman of San Francisco, has obtained a half-interest in the Southern California Messenger from W. A. Benjamin, who retains a half interest. Mrs. Hamlin will attend to the editorial work and Mr. Benjamin to the business end of the publication. The Messenger is published here "in the interests of Orange county."

LOST TWO FINE COLTS IN LAST TWO WEEKS

I. M. Von Schiltz has had hard luck with two of his valuable colts. One of them fell off a beet dump last week and was killed. Thursday another one was struck by a fast-moving P. E. car on the Huntington Beach line. The colt was so badly injured that he had to be killed.

WANT WOMEN

TO HAVE VOTE

frage argument on that basis. "In uncivilized countries woman is a slave and a drudge. In more civilized countries, man is content if she be true. Thus would things remain had not the law of creation allowed the higher education of women. Now some men are afraid of the dawning intelligence of women. Woman now demands recognition. The sixteenth century kind of a man still opposes equal suffrage because he prefers to think that woman is a weaker vessel than he."

"A woman might be happy shut in her own garden, in her own place of peace, not knowing that the grass without her wails may be bedraggled with ruined lives. To better these conditions without, woman can take a place in a broader usefulness and the commonwealth be the better for it. Woman is not seeking to usurp man's place, but only to walk side by side with him in making cleaner cities, in assisting in the protection of homes and women and children and in keeping down vice."

"This cry for woman's suffrage is not a senseless craving, but is a great demand of a great body of enlightened, educated, noble women to whom life means more than food and body means more than raiment."

Just One Point

Chairman Keech said that he was convinced in favor of woman's suffrage by the chief argument against it.

"The chief argument against it," said he, "is that women do not take interest in the same activities as men. That is the very reason that women should vote, so that every activity may be represented in our government."

State Senator Speaks
State Senator Gates said that he had voted to submit an amendment that would give the mother equal say with the father in the disposal of their children. As the law stands the husband is considered the natural guardian of the child. He said he thinks the next legislature will change that law.

"There are twenty-three constitutional amendments," said he. "Why so many? We promised to take the state out of the hands of the Southern Pacific, and these amendments are necessary parts of the fulfillment of that promise. Gov. Johnson will tell you more fully next Thursday night about these amendments. They are intended to enlarge the power and scope of the individual voter. They will give you an opportunity to take a larger share in your government."

"The three biggest amendments are: First, is No. 8, which is the fourth on the ballot, giving the vote to woman."

"Second, No. 22, the initiative and referendum. That law gives eight per cent of the voters a right to propose laws and amendments to the constitution. It is now sixteen years since you had a chance to vote on woman's suffrage. With this law you could get another crack at it in a short time. It is not a revolutionary measure. By the referendum, you have ninety days in which to stop any law going into effect, if you find that law to be vicious or unadvisable."

"Third, the recall. All that means is that if you have hired someone to do certain duties and he has become recreant or dishonest, you can fire him. The right to hire ought always to carry the right to fire. No private business is without that power. If it is needed in private business, it is far more important in public business."

"The proposed recall of the judiciary has awakened the intense opposition of the bar. We created this government in the co-ordinant parts. The people are supreme, yet the Supreme Court of the United States has recently written into our law on trust the word 'reasonable,' which word was never put there by the law-makers. That makes that court the supreme power, the creature greater than the creator. I believe we can have no complete freedom until every agency is inferior to the people, and the judge like every other agency should be subject to the people.

"I think that everyone of the amendments ought to be adopted. I want all of you to hear Gov. Johnson discuss these amendments."

Woman's Suffrage

"In the Senate I was asked how I got the right of suffrage. I answered, 'By accident, I happened to be born a boy.' I believe in woman's suffrage because I believe in man's suffrage. All must participate in order to form a just government."

"The consent of the governed? Have you women been governed? The records of crime in this state show that there are 100 men criminals to one woman. Women by nature and training are more moral and more law-abiding than men, and their participation in the ballot would raise the standard."

"Over 100,000 women in this state have already asked to be allowed to vote. Some have argued that only the fallen women will vote. That is not true. The records at Denver show that fallen women, who ply their occupation under assumed names, do not register because they would have to declare their true names.

"Women, we are not offering you charity. We are only permitting you to possess the rights that have been denied you for 135 years. This is a problem of human rights, absolute rights. Talk about the filthy pool of politics. Who made it filthy? 'Politics is a study of public questions. If women have not the intelligence to vote, we had better tear down our schools, for women use them more than men. The records show that Colorado has better laws than any state for the protection of women, children and homes. 'The question is up to you. The legislature has done its part.'"

FREEDOM DID NOT APPEAL

Three Boys Escape From Detention Home, But One Returns of Own Accord

Three boys, Phillip Gibbons, aged 14; Louis Spingath, aged 12, and Lyman Dusenberry, aged 10, made their escape from the Detention Home on Grand avenue about dusk last evening. Before the party had got out of town, however, the youngest of the trio, Dusenberry, came to the conclusion that he did not want to "hit the trail," and voluntarily returned to the home.

According to the story told by Dusenberry, the other two boys started for Newport Beach, intending to make their way thence to San Diego. They told him, he said, that they would break into the first hardware store they encountered and arm themselves with revolvers. The project of chasing burglars did not appeal to Lyman, and he refused to accompany his more adventurous elders.

The three boys were engaged late yesterday afternoon in watering the lawn at the home. Superintendent Hill being in the vicinity. According to Dusenberry's story when the three had finished the lawn they went around to the coal shed in the rear, carrying a coal-hod, as though to carry in the evening's supply of coal for the range. The boys had evidently prepared for escape, as they had their coats and hats convenient. While Hill thought they were getting the coal they slipped out the back way and made their way to an orchard near the railroad tracks. There they hid until after dark, when Dusenberry returned to the home and the others, according to his story, started for Newport.

Dusenberry is the boy who was engaged a month ago with one of the girl inmates of the home in an attempt to burn the building.

J. F. CLEVELAND MAY RUN FOR GOVERNOR

Anaheim Gazette: J. F. Cleveland of Phoenix, Ariz., who has been spending several weeks on the coast with his family returned on Sunday afternoon to his home in the territory recently admitted to the union as a state. Mr. Cleveland is past grand chancellor of the Arizona grand lodge Knights of Pythias, and while here visited lodges in this city, Fullerton and Orange. At the installation of Orange uniform rank in this city on Wednesday he was elected a member of that company, a signal honor paid to one not a resident of that city. One of his missions while here was to confer with Brig-Gen. Royer relative to installing a number of uniform rank companies in Arizona. Application for charters was made to the supreme commander and referred to Gen. Royer. As a result of action by that gentleman, supported by the Anaheim lodge, Gen. Royer and a delegation of Knights will go to Phoenix next month to install companies in that city, Tempe, Mesa and Yuma. Mr. Cleveland will come over to accompany them to the territory.

Mr. Cleveland was private secretary to Gov. Kibbey and later to Gov. Sloan. He resigned last year to enter the banking business, and is president of the Union Trust Company.

While here he received two wires from his home advising him that he had been chosen at a caucus of Republicans of Arizona to stand as the party's candidate for governor. He wired in reply that he would make known his decision on his return. The election occurs in November. He is averse to getting into politics again, but may be prevailed upon to stand for the office as the best equipped as well as most available man for the high office. He has steered his way clear of factional fights in the party, and has done probably more than any man in the territory to bring the two factions together. In consequence of his declining to take a hand in political hammer throwing he has the support of both sides, and with a united party behind him will doubtless land the office, if he consents to give up a profitable banking business and take the stump. He was four years ago elected to the Arizona legislature from Graham county, a Democratic stronghold.

Miss Cahen Engaged
Anaheim Gazette: At a prettily appointed five hundred party given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Adelaide Cahen of Los Angeles, formerly a resident of this city, announcement was made of the betrothal of the hostess's daughter, Miss Gladys Cahen, to F. P. Crook of Whittier. Down stairs the rooms were attractively decorated for the occasion with quantities of yellow blossoms, while the small tables on the roof-garden, where luncheon was served, were arranged with baskets of yellow flowers. Favors were tiny crooks and canes, suggestive of the names of the young couple. No date is announced for the wedding. The young bride-elect is a graduate of the Westlake School for Girls, while her betrothed is a graduate of the University of California. Among Anaheim guests at the party were Misses Fay McKinley and Lillie Zeus.

CARE OF HORSES IN SUMMER
When the Weather Is Hot and Sultry Teams Should Be Given Occasional Rest—Other Hints

When the weather is hot and sultry, rest the teams occasionally; let down the bearing rein and use as light harness as possible. Most of the large city truck companies have discarded the check rein entirely. When the check is not used the horse has greater use of his head, which is of advantage, especially in summer. Give water often, but little at a time. Sponge out the mouth before drinking. When brought in at noon let him cool off before drinking. A little lunch may be given at first; when cool give grain mixed with wheat bran.

Card and brush down morning and night; wash the dried sweat off the shoulders, wipe dry and, if chafed, dust with powdered air-slacked lime or apply crude petroleum. For sores, wash with warm water and carbolic soap, wipe dry, then rub in a little of the black oil, which is the same as crude petroleum.

If horses are troubled with the scratches, mix one part of lard and one part of gamboge thoroughly. Wash the foot out and fetlock, wipe dry, then apply a little of this. It is cheap and effective. Keep the stables clean, dry, well aired, with an abundance of sunshine. Have slat doors to the stables and screened windows. Give a good dry bed at night. Horses should not be watered immediately after eating; let them rest a full hour. The food will then be better digested and there is less danger from colic. If you have whole rye you can feed a small quantity and save grinding. Mix one part rye with two parts oats and two parts of wheat bran. Give two quarts of this mixture at a feed. This grain mixture may be fed to young horses, but not to old ones. If corn is fed during the summer it should be soaked a few hours before feeding. Mix a little wheat bran with the corn; the corn will be better digested.

The horse manure should be given a coat of plaster daily and then covered with cow manure or earth. When covered with a coat of earth or cow manure it will rot slowly; there will be no loss of ammonia and there will not be a breeding place for a swarm of flies to trouble the stock and to carry filth and disease into the home.

CAUGHT WITH STOLEN HORSE

Reform School Boy, Who Escaped at Los Alamitos, Arrested Here

Messack Kurtangha, an 18-year-old Armenian boy, escaped from a gang of Whittier State School inmates at Los Alamitos on Thursday, and was caught here yesterday afternoon by Constable Jackson. Messack was sent to the reform school four years ago for stealing a motorcycle.

He was one of fourteen boys sent from the school to work on the Bixby ranch. Messack was at work hauling manure, Thursday he stole a horse, saddle and bridle, mounted and rode away. He says that he spent Thursday night at Olive.

Yesterday afternoon he hitched his horse under a tree on Parton street, and began going from back-door to back-door of houses along Parton street, inquiring for some fictitious person. His real object was probably an opportunity to get some clothing. He had torn the leg-strips from his overalls, but he was unable to efface the letter E, his company mark at Whittier, on his shirt.

Constable Jackson was informed that a boy was going from house-to-house on Parton street, and the officer went out and made the arrest. The constable took the boy to Whittier this morning.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the vision of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Rowley Drug Co.

Road Made of Leather
After nearly a year a road made of leather waste treated with tar at Handsworth, Birmingham, England, shows practically no signs of wear. Heavy wheels make no impression on it, and it is a comfortable material for horses to tread on. Waste leather which was shredded until it virtually became a pulp was treated with bitumen of tar. It is stated that hitherto no real use has been found for leather waste—London Daily Mail.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Business was light. Receipts in general were light, and a firm tone was noted on staples. Fruit prices were well sustained, with the exception of overripe stock, which was sacrificed. Apples were about the only fruit in heavy receipt, totaling 2640 boxes.

There was a good call for the light receipts of dried-stock peaches and prices held firm.

Bellefleurs made up the bulk of the apple receipts and were quoted from $1.25 to $1.35 a 4-tier box.

Bananas were in liberal receipt and prices were unchanged, being quoted at 4 cents a pound.

There was a fair demand for the limited receipts of Hawaiian pineapples. They were quoted at 7 cents a pound.

Well packed Bartlett pears were in good demand and sold at 5 cents a pound.

Gross prunes were in good receipt; well packed stock was offered for $1.25 a box.

There were few cantaloupes on the market and the demand was light. Large crates were quoted at $1.25.

Strawberries were in good receipt but commanded little attention.

Casaba melons were in light demand. They were quoted at $1.50 a crate.

Tomatoes were selling on the low level, with an indifferent demand.

The egg market ruled firm under the revised figures. Receipts were light from outside, totaling 110 cases.

Butter receipts were 15,000 pounds. The market was firm. There was a good call for creamery stock.

Cheese receipts were 119 pounds. There was no change in price quotations. Plenty of stock is held in storage and this has tended to keep the market in good shape for consumers.

Potato receipts were 1520 sacks. There was no change in the situation. The potato receipts are about equal to the demand and dealers assert that prices will not soar as predicted, due to the shortage of the crop.

Bean receipts were 1344 sacks. The bean market has strengthened and prospective buyers are giving the market more attention.

Sheriff's Sale
In the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, in the matter of the estate of H. Holt and H. R. Holt, defendants.

Under and by virtue of an Execution issued out of the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, wherein Harriet B. Cochran, formerly Harriet B. Holt, plaintiff, and Nancy E. Holt and H. R. Holt, defendants, upon a judgment rendered the 6th day of May, 1909, for the sum of twenty hundred sixty-eight and 90-100 dollars and costs, besides costs and interest; and that the said sum of $2,667.61, with interest from the 7th day of May, 1909, is now (at the date of this writ) actually due on said judgment.

I have this day levied upon all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendants (or either of them) in and to the following described real estate, to-wit:

The northwest quarter (N. W. 1/4) of the southeast quarter (S. E. 1/4) of section 14, township 4 south, range 11 west, S. B. M. of Orange County, California.

Notice is hereby given that on Wednesday, the 20th day of September, 1911, at 10 o'clock A. M., I will proceed to sell at the south door of the court house in the city of Santa Ana, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in full money of the United States, all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendants, (or either of them), in and to the above described property, and so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient to satisfy said judgment with interest and costs.

Given under my hand this 31st day of August, 1911.

C. E. RUDDOCK, Sheriff.
J. E. SAM JERMAN, Deputy.

WARD CHAPMAN, Attorney for Plaintiff.

County Superintendent Mitchell is leading the discussions.

Second Marriage
Married, divorced and married again—that is the story of a Los Angeles couple's affairs up to date. This morning County Clerk Williams issued a marriage license to Robert H. Bell, a car inspector, and Jessie G. Bell, both aged 26 and both of Los Angeles. Justice of the Peace Landell of San Juan Capistrano married them at the courthouse.

Copy Is Filed
This morning there was filed a copy of the articles of incorporation of the Bungalow Building and Investment Company of Los Angeles. It has $50,000 capitalization.

Marriage License
On September 15—Ernest Hough, 39, and Mabel Boughton, 23, both of Los Angeles.

On September 16—Robert H. Bell, 26, and Jessie G. Bell, 26, both of Los Angeles.

KISSIMMEE, Fla., Sept. 16.—It is rumored today that Sister Sadie Marchant, of the Shaker colony, committed suicide and that sister Sears and Brother Gillette deliberately planned to confess to chloroforming her rather than permit her lapse from the rigid Shaker rule to stain her memory. It is reported the two wished the friends of the dead woman to continue to revere her memory. Both the accused, however, deny the report.

ROCK PILE SCARES CROOKS
SAN DIEGO, Sept. 16.—"This city is comparatively free from dangerous characters," said Chief of Police Wilson last night after hearing the reports of some of his men. The chief based his assertion on the activity his detectives have shown since the recent chloroform burglaries started. They have arrested a number of men with no apparent occupation and with bad records and have sent them to the rock pile, while others, suspected of activity that the police do not like, have been chased out.

NO TRACE YET OF
CANADIAN ROBBERS

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 16.—In spite of the fact that General Manager Campbell Sweeney, of the Bank of Montreal, which was looted yesterday, says a definite clue is being followed and the chances are that the yegmen will soon be in the toils, the local and provincial police are apparently at sea. The country from the international border to Vancouver has been combed, but no trace of the robbers has been found.

The work of the police has been hampered by heavy rains.

Anaheim motorcycle cops have been keeping busy. Thursday night they arrested Saunders of Santa Ana, driving an automobile. Saunders says he was within the limit, and will fight the case.

Yesterday W. P. Billingsley of Villa Park, was arrested on a charge of speeding. While Billingsley believed the arrest was not justified he paid a fine of $5 and let it go at that.

DE KOR WILL FLY FOR DOMINGUEZ
At 5 o'clock tonight Fred De Kor, who flew over Santa Ana to Anaheim last Wednesday evening, expects to strike out through the air for Dominguez field. He will make his start from the mesa five miles south of Santa Ana, and will probably head for Long Beach.

James Willis Rice desires to announce that he has resumed his class. Those desiring violin instruction may communicate with Mr. Rice at Tustin, or phone Red 2024.

FARMER LAD WAS NOT SO GREEN

A Supposedly Unsophisticated Youth Works Denver Grain Men for $12,000

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 16.—A raw-boned, seedy looking youth, giving the name of Roy V. Smith, and his home as Brigham, Utah, is being sought today by eight Denver grain dealers who felt so sympathetic toward the farmer lad because he apparently lacked any knowledge of business that they parted with $12,000 on a worthless bill of lading.

Late in August Smith wrote to each dealer saying he had 4000 sacks of oats to sell. The Denver market was short, and the grain men agreed to buy Smith's oats. Then they received notice that Smith had shipped two carloads to each. On the plea that he was short of money, Smith succeeded in securing $1500 from each by surrendering bills of lading, then he escaped.

Our Washington Letter

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—A new showplace, unique and instructive, will within a few weeks be added to the attractions of Washington. It will be a permanent exhibit of the natural resources and other advantages offered by the Southern states to capitalists, homeseekers, laborers. The enterprise will be under the patronage of the Southern Commercial Congress. The design is to bring to the attention of a large portion of over 200,000 people visiting Washington every year a graphic presentation of what the South is doing and the opportunities for further development.

The exhibit will be installed in a spacious room, 48 by 110 feet, on the ground floor of the Southern building, a new skyscraper, two blocks from the White House and near other government buildings that are invariably visited by tourists. The display will be so arranged as to impress the casual visitor as well as to satisfy the inquiries of all who seriously seek information. Mural decorations will be devoted to emphasizing the great points of leadership inherent in the South. These lines of leadership are: Coast lines, navigable streams, water powers, distribution of rain fall, varieties of soil, growing hours for vegetation, wet lands, forests and minerals as related to rivers and the coast.

Sixteen great columns in the room will be set aside to emphasize the points of leadership. One column will be devoted to each of the sixteen states for which the Southern Commercial Congress exercises its activities. These are the states: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee,

Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Around these columns will be arranged the displays of the first four cities of each state that contract for space. In addition, every organization in the South may display its printed matter and album of photographic views. The installation of the exhibit and its general conduct will be attended to by Dr. Clarence J. Owens, secretary-treasurer of the Congress. Managing Director Dawe in an interview regarding the matter said: "The Southern exhibit will not be an advertising dodge. It is an educational idea to lead the mind of the nation to an understanding of the Southern States and their wonderful present and possible development. The exhibit will have nothing for sale, but will enable all visitors to 'see' the South. The serious purpose of the Southern Commercial Congress is to strengthen the nation by leading to a correct understanding of the South."

Columbus Memorial
A memorial to the memory of Christopher Columbus, widely known as a bold and inquisitive sailor, will be unique in Washington from the fact that the statue and accompanying emblematic embellishments will be of chaste, white marble.

All the other heroes, whether afoot or on horseback, that adorn most of the open spaces in Washington are celebrated with statues of bronze or other metal.

In the case of the great discoverer, the marble work will include the heroic statue of Columbus, two figures of ancient and modern American inhabitants, the shaft which forms the background of the statue, the globe and two eagles which surmount the shaft, the caravel in which the statue stands and its allegorical figurehead, the two lions which decorate the ends of the semi-circular fountain which provides a setting for the statue, and the superstructure of the fountain basin.

The memorial will adorn the plaza in front of the Union Station, at the head of the short vista looking from the Capitol. It was designed by Lorado Taft, of Ohio, a cousin of President Taft. He won in a competition in which American and European sculptors participated. The cost of the memorial will be $70,000.

Tourists are Good Game
Tourists who visit the Holy Land are hailed by the natives as a welcome and steady source of revenue. Interest in the subject led Consul William Coffin, at Jerusalem, to make inquiries and he reached this conclusion as to the share of the gold garnered in that district:

"Most of the tourists remain four or five days in Jerusalem and vicinity. A low estimate of each individual's expenses during his stay is $25, and if the 7200 tourists in 1909-10 season spent only that much per capita they left $180,000 behind them. The sum they do spend is without doubt considerably in excess of these figures, and added to the smaller expenditures of the thousands of pilgrims, makes an important part of the district's income."

The production of the exports classed under the heading of religious souvenirs forms one of the leading industries in both Jerusalem and Bethlehem. In the latter town there are several concerns shipping mother-of-pearl articles, chiefly rosaries and crosses, all over the world. Most of the pearl waste from which these are made comes from the United States.

In Jerusalem there are numerous small shops manufacturing olive-wood boxes, crosses, flower albums, etc., for the tourist trade. The export statistics of this trade are of no value whatever, as they do not include the extensive shipments by parcel post or, of course, the goods which tourists buy and carry away with them.

"The trade is largely dependent upon the tourist movement, although, particularly for mother-of-pearl articles, there is a steady demand from abroad independent of tourists. The souvenir shops in Jerusalem sell many oriental wares, such as weapons, antiques, brassware, inlaid furniture, and rugs, most of which are imported from Damascus."

To Protect Sponge Fisheries
A difficult task confronts the revenue cutter Forward, which has been ordered to the Keys of Florida to enforce the law regulating the taking of sponges. In a report received at the Treasury Department the commander of the revenue cutter says that he found a number of schooners and sloops on the sponge fishing-ground, but was unable to get evidence of violation of the law. Many of these were equipped with diving apparatus. It was easy for the men on any sponge-seeking ship violating the law to suspend the diving when the Forward came into sight and to throw overboard sponges taken illegally.

Imports of Wooden Shoes
Wooden shoes, usually associated only with variety shows and pictures of street scenes in Holland and, in fact, worn by thousands of people in this country. A single shipment from Amsterdam to Grand Rapids, Mich., mentioned in a report by Vice Consul De Young, consisted of 600 cases containing several thousand pairs of lumber footwear. A similar shipment was made a few months ago. Also the report reveals the sections of the United States addicted to the habit as follows:

"It is stated that the United States is the best foreign customer of the Netherlands for this article of manufacture, many hundreds of pairs of wooden shoes being worn in Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, New Jersey, and a few other States. In fact, it is claimed that there is more wooden shoes in Chicago, Grand Rapids, Mich., or Holland, Mich., than in the city of Amsterdam. Patterson, N. J., St. Louis, Mo., Lancaster Co., Neb., Marion Co., Iowa and numerous other smaller settlements import large quantities of this practical article of dress every year."

"The wooden-shoe industry in the Netherlands is generally decentralized, logs being hewn out to the measure of the customer's feet in the village shop. The local price depends upon the amount of lumber used and the market price of raw material."

At 5 o'clock tonight Fred De Kor, who flew over Santa Ana to Anaheim last Wednesday evening, expects to strike out through the air for Dominguez field. He will make his start from the mesa five miles south of Santa Ana, and will probably head for Long Beach.

James Willis Rice desires to announce that he has resumed his class. Those desiring violin instruction may communicate with Mr. Rice at Tustin, or phone Red 2024.

Dr. H. M. Robertson, Physician and Surgeon, Office Cor. Third and Main, opposite City Hall. Both Phones.

"They say that Rockefeller is so rich that his fortune increases by a thousand francs every time his watch ticks."
"Good gracious! If I were he I should be in a continual fright lest some one should steal my watch."
—Pepe Mele.

The exhibit will be installed in a spacious room, 48 by 110 feet, on the ground floor of the Southern building, a new skyscraper, two blocks from the White House and near other government buildings that are invariably visited by tourists. The display will be so arranged as to impress the casual visitor as well as to satisfy the inquiries of all who seriously seek information. Mural decorations will be devoted to emphasizing the great points of leadership inherent in the South. These lines of leadership are: Coast lines, navigable streams, water powers, distribution of rain fall, varieties of soil, growing hours for vegetation, wet lands, forests and minerals as related to rivers and the coast.

Sixteen great columns in the room will be set aside to emphasize the points of leadership. One column will be devoted to each of the sixteen states for which the Southern Commercial Congress exercises its activities. These are the states: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee,

Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Around these columns will be arranged the displays of the first four cities of each state that contract for space. In addition, every organization in the South may display its printed matter and album of photographic views. The installation of the exhibit and its general conduct will be attended to by Dr. Clarence J. Owens, secretary-treasurer of the Congress. Managing Director Dawe in an interview regarding the matter said: "The Southern exhibit will not be an advertising dodge. It is an educational idea to lead the mind of the nation to an understanding of the Southern States and their wonderful present and possible development. The exhibit will have nothing for sale, but will enable all visitors to 'see' the South. The serious purpose of the Southern Commercial Congress is to strengthen the nation by leading to a correct understanding of the South."

Columbus Memorial
A memorial to the memory of Christopher Columbus, widely known as a bold and inquisitive sailor, will be unique in Washington from the fact that the statue and accompanying emblematic embellishments will be of chaste, white marble.

All the other heroes, whether afoot or on horseback, that adorn most of the open spaces in Washington are celebrated with statues of bronze or other metal.

In the case of the great discoverer, the marble work will include the heroic statue of Columbus, two figures of ancient and modern American inhabitants, the shaft which forms the background of the statue, the globe and two eagles which surmount the shaft, the caravel in which the statue stands and its allegorical figurehead, the two lions which decorate the ends of the semi-circular fountain which provides a setting for the statue, and the superstructure of the fountain basin.

The memorial will adorn the plaza in front of the Union Station, at the head of the short vista looking from the Capitol. It was designed by Lorado Taft, of Ohio, a cousin of President Taft. He won in a competition in which American and European sculptors participated. The cost of the memorial will be $70,000.

Tourists are Good Game
Tourists who visit the Holy Land are hailed by the natives as a welcome and steady source of revenue. Interest in the subject led Consul William Coffin, at Jerusalem, to make inquiries and he reached this conclusion as to the share of the gold garnered in that district:

"Most of the tourists remain four or five days in Jerusalem and vicinity. A low estimate of each individual's expenses during his stay is $25, and if the 7200 tourists in 1909-10 season spent only that much per capita they left $180,000 behind them. The sum they do spend is without doubt considerably in excess of these figures, and added to the smaller expenditures of the thousands of pilgrims, makes an important part of the district's income."

The production of the exports classed under the heading of religious souvenirs forms one of the leading industries in both Jerusalem and Bethlehem. In the latter town there are several concerns shipping mother-of-pearl articles, chiefly rosaries and crosses, all over the world. Most of the pearl waste from which these are made comes from the United States.

In Jerusalem there are numerous small shops manufacturing olive-wood boxes, crosses, flower albums, etc., for the tourist trade. The export statistics of this trade are of no value whatever, as they do not include the extensive shipments by parcel post or, of course, the goods which tourists buy and carry away with them.

"The trade is largely dependent upon the tourist movement, although, particularly for mother-of-pearl articles, there is a steady demand from abroad independent of tourists. The souvenir shops in Jerusalem sell many oriental wares, such as weapons, antiques, brassware, inlaid furniture, and rugs, most of which are imported from Damascus."

To Protect Sponge Fisheries
A difficult task confronts the revenue cutter Forward, which has been ordered to the Keys of Florida to enforce the law regulating the taking of sponges. In a report received at the Treasury Department the commander of the revenue cutter says that he found a number of schooners and sloops on the sponge fishing-ground, but was unable to get evidence of violation of the law. Many of these were equipped with diving apparatus. It was easy for the men on any sponge-seeking ship violating the law to suspend the diving when the Forward came into sight and to throw overboard sponges taken illegally.

Imports of Wooden Shoes
Wooden shoes, usually associated only with variety shows and pictures of street scenes in Holland and, in fact, worn by thousands of people in this country. A single shipment from Amsterdam to Grand Rapids, Mich., mentioned in a report by Vice Consul De Young, consisted of 600 cases containing several thousand pairs of lumber footwear. A similar shipment was made a few months ago. Also the report reveals the sections of the United States addicted to the habit as follows:

"It is stated that the United States is the best foreign customer of the Netherlands for this article of manufacture, many hundreds of pairs of wooden shoes being worn in Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, New Jersey, and a few other States. In fact, it is claimed that there is more wooden shoes in Chicago, Grand Rapids, Mich., or Holland, Mich., than in the city of Amsterdam. Patterson, N. J., St. Louis, Mo., Lancaster Co., Neb., Marion Co., Iowa and numerous other smaller settlements import large quantities of this practical article of dress every year."

"The wooden-shoe industry in the Netherlands is generally decentralized, logs being hewn out to the measure of the customer's feet in the village shop. The local price depends upon the amount of lumber used and the market price of raw material."

"Three bucks"—to use the vernacular.

Three dollars in real money—and not a bit "dear" at the price.

Mallory hats have met with instant favor among the most critical men and young men.

When you see them you'll readily see why!

Soft hats and derbies.

Everything about them points to exclusiveness—the clever styles—the little touches of "differentness" here and there—give them character of the highest standard.

Quality of the very best—of course their shape assured.
